DESCRIPTION

Summer term and Fall semester is around the corner! Enrolled in courses for Fall semester and looking for affordable student housing? Look no further, we have your affordable housing needs right across from campus! Come join the Century Commons Community! This is a great place to learn independence, meet others and get a great education. We're within walking distance of campus, a grocery store and much more! Century Commons is the place for you! We have large, shared apartments available just one block from Century College. You will have your own private bedroom with a lock on your door while sharing the living room, dining room, kitchen and bathrooms with other students renting the other bedrooms. Rent includes utilities and high-speed building wide Wi-Fi making it easy to budget your money. Also, come check out the new community room featuring a pool table, flat screen TV's and Bose sound system. Our lease end dates are also based on the Century College academic calendar making it easy for you to determine how long you would like to stay.

Unlike many university dorms, we do not require you to move out for a week if you will be going to school next year. You have the option of either staying in your apartment year-round or just for the school year.
